

1. The news has done an excellent job of scaring the public to death. If the public was given the real truth and given a realistic outlook, they would be much better served. My wife thinks everything is coming apart and rational thinking has long left due to the news reporting. A joke!
2. Idiot rather see anything in ther than COVID
3. This epidemic is being used by the democrats as an excuse to increase the size of government. We need more reporting about what they are up to.
4. Never let a good crisis go to waste. Government and bureaucracies will try to slip things by us when we're distracted with the main crisis. We can't let our eyes off them for a moment.
5. Keep working to find the real stuff!
6. Information is power, so, unbiased information would be perfect--just the facts!
7. Absolutely
8. Life will continue
9. Thanks for your good work!
10. The media will not talk about anything but the virus. And the information we want and need to here about the effects of this virus are being buried.
11. the more information, the better
12. Our lives still go on.
13. I'm sick of hearing about the Corona virus!
14. Would like to hear more about the republican governor's race.
15. There are times in history there are issues that eclipse Some other important issues in life for a period if time. If people Seek I formation it can be found.
16. Life goes on and so does the hidden agendas of the power brokers in our society. We must stay informed on what else is going on.
17. I don't want to keep focusing on the 'bright shiny object' in one hand (the virus & its immediate fallout) while the other hand continues to do the dark leftist & progressive dance that no one is bothering to give their attention...
18. need to "reveal" the actual reason for high housing costs: too much regulation, eg wetlands, habitat,UGAs
19. See comment above
20. Is this pandemic covering up something media doesn't want to cover?
21. media..corona overload...watching channel 4 after a day of getting bombarded with dome and gloom corona..they put a crawl on the bottom of the screen during prime time to update corona death...give me a break
22. I'm at covid 19 overload, no solutions coming from the state dealing with the financial crisis that we are in and what is to come
23. It feels like our government can"sneak" things in when we're all focused on the coronavirus.... Obviously we don't much trust government in Washington to be looking out for our best interests..ie sex education for children.
